

I feel very strongly that there is far too much violence and sex in the television programs. Too many children have no supervision during the week because both parents are working; I believe we are now reaping the results with increased cases of children as young as eight years of age killing another child.

Please, please do your part in seeing that the television programing is cleaned up of the filth, violence and sex that is available for unsupervised children to view.